How Swap Circuits Work

Each type of circuit specializes in a particular category of stamps. You receive an envelope with stamps and a route sheet with several members' names and addresses. You take out however many you want and replace them with the same number of stamps that match the category of the circuit. Then you mail the envelope on to the next person on the list.

	How many circuits? ¹	Circle one per type of circuit you want to participate in ²
Mail circuit membership fee Required no matter how many circuits chosen		$2.00
Large size foreign (no USA) stamp circuits 100 stamps per envelope	Regular	100 large stamps - or - $5
	Extra	200 large stamps - or - $10
Small size/Definitive stamp circuits 100 stamps per envelope	Regular	100 small stamps - or - $5
	Extra	200 small stamps - or - $10
Cancelled to Order (CTO) circuits 200 stamps per envelope	Regular	200 CTO stamps - or - $10
Super Circuits - Large size foreign, but more at a time 200 stamps per envelope	Regular	200 large stamps - or - $10
	Extra	400 large stamps - or - $20
USA only stamp circuits 100 stamps per envelope	Regular	100 USA stamps - or - $5
First Day Cover (FDC) circuits 20 covers per envelope	Regular	20 first day covers - or - $5
Postcard circuits 15 postcards per circuit	Regular	15 postcards - or - $5

¹ A regular subscription means you'll participate in up to 4 concurrent circuits (usually 3 - 4 per month)

An extra size subscription means you'll participate in up to 9 concurrent circuits (usually 4 - 8 per month)

² Checks must be in U.S. funds and should be made payable to ISWSC. Cash is sent at your own risk.
